ABOUT ME

Abby Smith is a Real Estate Sales Associate with Town and Country Properties of Florida, proudly serving DeSoto County and the surrounding areas. A lifelong local resident and DeSoto County High School Class of 2008 graduate, Abby brings deep community knowledge and a genuine understanding of rural living to every client interaction. While new to the real estate industry, Abby offers valuable firsthand experience through her own personal property endeavors, along with a strong background built during her time with the Florida Department of Agriculture. This combination has given her insight into residential, rural, and agricultural properties, as well as a strong network within the local community. Married to her husband, Justin, and a mother of three daughters, Abby is passionate about helping families, landowners, and buyers find the right property to fit their goals and lifestyle. She is committed to providing clear communication, honest guidance, and client-focused service in every transaction.
