Kandis Drymon
to the Town & Country Properties Team

Kandis was born and raised in Desoto County. She is a 6th generation Desoto County resident and graduated in 2005. She married her husband, Johnny, in 2012 and has three boys Whiley, Johnathan and Levi. Kandis has worked in healthcare since graduating and started a mobile lab company to provide a much needed service to her community and her passion for helping others shines through daily. In 2021, she wanted to continue her passion of helping others and became a licensed real estate agent. She is dedicated to serving her community and is looking forward to helping you find your forever home, investment or commercial property.
