Jessica is proud to be a Florida native. Originally from the East Coast beaches of Florida, Jessica moved to DeSoto County in 2009 with her daughter and has been an engaged member of the community ever since. In 2013, she began her career as a real estate paralegal under local Attorney Eugene E. Waldron, Jr. where she gained valuable title knowledge and closed numerous residential, commercial and land transactions. She joined Esposito Law Group of Bradenton in 2017 as a closer where she expanded her title knowledge into banking and agricultural lending. Three years later, DeSoto County called her home and she returned to the firm where she got her start. This time under the direction of Attorney J. Cole Brewer. She has obtained the knowledge and skill necessary to provide exceptional real estate services to our community. She has enjoyed her time as a real estate paralegal and looks forward to serving buyers and sellers across Southwest Florida in her current role as a Realtor at Town & Country Properties.
